Kraft 16” Window Catering Square - Stock Print

Sabert's Kraft catering squares feature a clear window display to showcase items inside, without having to open the lid. The corrugated construction insulates to keep food during transport. The catering squares are durable, and will not crush or bend during transport, while still being presentation ready. Two-pieces are shipped flat and assemble together easily. These trays are not food contact-safe and are recommended for use with pre-wrapped items.
